

Definitely NOT Chicken Little

Did you ever feel like you needed a mother hen to watch over you? If so, you should probably move in with Austin artist Faith Shexnayder—she has the mother of all mother hens standing guard in her yard.

According to Faith, her oversized hen is a cocky, rule-the-roost kind of bird. Faith sees the work of art as an embodiment of the mother hen attitude, telling people: “Don’t mess with my chicks.” And you know what they say: When a five-foot tall chicken tells you something, you’d better listen.

But this bird is actually more than just a work of art. Faith designed it to be part of her children’s playground. It’s sturdy enough to hold active kids and has gentle curves that make it suitable for climbing.

If you’re in the neighborhood, come check out our favorite hen. Just don’t tell Colonel Sanders.

RESIDENCE
708 WEST GIBSON STREET

18 LOCATION MAP 2.

